16th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A

Dear brothers and sisters.

This passage in today's Gospel, has been used, particularly by St Augustine, To show how people who are wicked will still live alongside those who are just. It is only at the end of time that Jesus will come back, and he will separate the good from the bad. The devil has sown wickedness in our world, the world itself has responded by putting ourselves first and ignoring those who are in need. We pray that as Christians we will respond to God and put others first. As a community we respond when those are in need.

As we progress through our lives, we should be aware of those in need and even if we cannot help them financially, we should pray for our brothers and sisters who have so little. Our commitment to our brothers and sisters in Regina Coeli and Saint Paul's in Madadeni South Africa is a testament to our work. We pray that God will bless our work and as our friendship grows ever closer, we will respond with greater love to those who need us.

May God bless you in everything you do, Deacon Tony.

GIFT Conference: September 19th 9.30am-5pm at the Most Holy Redeemer Church, Billericay

- Are you disillusioned with your existing First Holy Communion Programme?
- Would you like to place families at the heart of parish renewal and support them to engage and connect with their faith?
- Does the idea of approaching sacramental preparation in a fruit-bearing way excite and inspire you?

Join us for this one-day conference which explores the GIFT (Growing in Faith Together) model of family catechesis. GIFT re-imagines how parishes can accompany and encourage families in their faith journey and prepare them for the sacraments.

Whether you have already started your GIFT journey or are looking for a different way to support your families, this conference will share what the GIFT model could look like in your parish and explore why it is transformative for the Church.
